Eastern Oregon University

History

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The History Program introduces the student to the world that was and is and the student's relationship to that world. It stresses the continuity of culture by providing a historical background for the study of other disciplines and for responsible citizenship. It also helps prepare students for careers in teaching, public service, consulting, research, museums, archives, and libraries, and provides a liberal education as a basis for entering a variety of careers such as public administration, business, and law.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Provide a solid foundation in the core academic discipline of History.

- Achieve a thorough understanding of the methodologies and professional ethics practiced by historians.

- Develop an appreciation for the diversity of historical experiences around the globe and a basic competence in several of these histories.

- Acquire a basic understanding of the core concepts, events, and historiographical trends in selected areas of American History, European History, and Asian History.

- Develop skills in researching, writing and presenting historical work.

MEANS OF ASSESSMENT

History Majors are evaluated in a variety of ways. They complete with a grade of C- or better required and elective courses that reinforce their knowledge of the diversity of the human historical experience. By satisfactorily completing History 420: Historiography and then writing a substantial undergraduate thesis that they must present to their peers, they master the fundamental methodologies that historians must use while enhancing their skills in research, writing, computer use, and public presentation. The thesis also caps course work in which students have mastered the ability to understand and compare historical interpretations, find and use both primary and secondary sources in libraries and on the internet, and communicate their findings to others. The writing-intensive course work also prepares them to take and pass Eastern's writing requirements assessing their competence as writers.

Prerequisite: Upper-division standing or consent of instructor. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 425- Hst Mdrn Sc:Grvty-Rltvty Credits: 5.00

This course offers an introduction to the history of the sciences roughly between the times of Isaac Newton in the late seventeenth century and Albert Einstein in the early twentieth. The course attempts to place science in the framework of modern culture and especially in Western Society. Among the topics emphasized is the idea of the scientific method and methods of experimentation. Specific subjects will include the foundations of modern science including gravity, chemistry, energy, evolution and the emergence of particle physics. In addition to building an understanding of the emerging ideas, the course works to study the ways in which social values are interwoven with scientific judgements. The course materials argue that scientists are not dispassionate catalogers of phenomena, but members of a society whose values and assumptions inform, and interact with their work. This relationship is especially true as it pertains to the development of a secular culture and specialization within science. Intimately bound up with the emergence of a secular culture and scientific expertise is the changing interaction between science and religion. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 427- Renais/Reform Europe Credits: 5.00

Social, political, economic, and religious developments in Europe from the fourteenth to the seventeenth centuries, with special attention given to the short and long range intellectual impact of Renaissance and Reformation ideas upon the history of Western Civilization. Prerequisite: Upper-division standing or consent of instructor. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 433- French Rev & Napoleon Credits: 5.00

A study of the origins of the Revolution from the reign of Louis XIV to the dissolution of the Old Regime in the revolutions of 1789 and 1792, the reign of terror, subsequent reaction, and the rule and conquests of Napoleon. Prerequisite: Upper-division standing or consent of instructor. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 437- Hist Modern Germany Credits: 5.00

A study of various German states concentrating on Prussia and its unification of Germany under Bismarck, pressures in the new Reich leading to the great War, the Weimar Republic, Hitler's Reich, the re-division of Germany after 1945, and its subsequent reunification. Prerequisite: Upper-division standing or consent of instructor. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 444- Hist Pacific Northwest Credits: 5.00

This course is designed to provide a broad overview of the historical events in the modern Pacific Northwest of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, as well as their causes. The goal is to acquaint students with major events of the region, their chronology and stimulate creative and critical thought about the history of the Pacific Northwest. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 448- Hist Modern Russia Credits: 5.00

Social, political, and economic history of Russia and its empire from the emancipation of the serfs through the rise and fall of the Soviet Union and the dissolution of the old Russian empire. Prerequisite: Upper-division standing or consent of instructor. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 458- Civil War/Reconstruction Credits: 5.00

Slavery, the Old South, sectional conflict, Civil War, the Reconstruction era through 1877, the consequences of Reconstruction. Prerequisite: Upper-division standing or consent of instructor. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 460- Amer Constit Hst*SSC Credits: 5.00Gen Ed Core-Social Sciences

The origins and development of the Constitution of the United States and major issues in the interpretation of the Constitution up to the present. Prerequisite: Upper-division standing or consent of instructor. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 465- Environmental History Credits: 5.00

This course will introduce environmental history as an academic discipline. The course will emphasize the study of people in their environment through time. The course will also examine how people have responded to environmental changes including the human induced changes. Given the potential scope of the topic this course will cover selected topics, specifically the American experience in North America with a special emphasis on the Pacific Northwest. The goal of this course is to acquaint students with major events and ideas about the topic, to stimulate creative and critical thought about environmental history and the Pacific Northwest. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 466- Hist Of American West Credits: 5.00

This course is designed to provide a broad overview of the historical events and casual relationships in the modern American West. For the purposes of this class, the region shall include the seventeen western states that lie west of a border running roughly from North Dakota to Texas. The course will include as a theme the obvious problems of defining specific boundaries. The goal of this course is to acquaint students with major events of the region, their chronology and stimulate creative and critical thought about the history of the American West. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.

HIST 478- History of Oregon Credits: 5.00

The native peoples of Oregon, European contacts and settlement, and the development of Oregon society, culture, and politics to the present. Prerequisite: Upper-division standing or consent of instructor. Student must have at least junior standing to register for this course.
