GENDER STUDIES MINOR

(This minor is also available via the Division of Distance Education) www.eou.edu/gender/

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

In recent years, feminist scholars have asked searching questions about the construction of the institutions and disciplines that drive our culture. They have also investigated the ways in which conceptions of femininity and masculinity are involved in structures of institutional power. Gender studies explores some of the complex questions and problems surrounding relationships between women and men, while investigating academic and activist approaches for pursuing gender equality.

The Gender Studies minor will provide opportunities:

- To identify various academic approaches to the study of gender and learn skills in critical and feminist analysis of these approaches.
- To integrate knowledge within the minor through understanding the intersections of gender, class, age, ability, race, culture, and sexual preference.
- To understand the activist origins of gender studies and examine initiatives for promoting gender equality.
- To relate academic knowledge to practice through service, internships, and practica.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will have the ability to:

- Identify major social, economic, political, psychological issues facing contemporary women and men.
- Describe gender research with respect to cultural shifts and policy transformations in Western society.
- Discern the parallels and intersections of gender discrimination with other prejudices against class, age, ability, race, culture, and sexual preference.
- Discuss major topics and approaches in the history of feminist thought.
- Comprehend the development, inter-disciplinary nature, and methodological approaches of gender studies.
- Compose an informed and focused research paper communicating scholarly approaches to gender analysis.

- Connect scholarly inquiry to gender justice through service, internships, and practica.

Students in Gender Studies are assessed in a variety of ways to determine their proficiencies. The faculty will use assignments such as essay exams, primary and secondary research papers, oral histories, documentaries, symposium presentations, collaborative reports, multi-media projects, art exhibits, practicum, and capstone experiences, all geared toward qualitative assessment of specified learning outcomes by means of stated criteria.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE GENDER STUDIES MINOR

The interdisciplinary minor in Gender Studies not only requires students to research and read, answer test questions and write papers; it requires students to challenge the status quo-including their own assumptions. While this extra level of analysis is also part of other programs, it is possible in traditional programs to graduate without substantially challenging cultural beliefs and practices around issues such as race, gender, class, or ability. Such questioning is at the heart of Gender Studies. A minor will consist of the following:

1. A minimum of 33 credit hours in Gender Studies and support courses, 30 of which must be graded and 3 must be practicum credits.
2. At least eighteen upper-division credits in Gender Studies and approved interdisciplinary elective courses are required. A list of these courses is available each quarter on the Gender Studies web site <http://www3.eou.edu/gender/>.
3. A minimum of ten credits applied toward the minor must be completed at EOU.
4. A grade of "C-" or better for all courses counting toward the minor.
5. A minimum G.P.A. of 2.00 for all courses counting toward the minor.
6. Completion of the following required courses:
GEND 301, Perspectives on Gender (5)
GEND 401, Research (1-3)
GEND 409, Practicum (1-6, S/U only)

The Program Faculty and each student's major adviser will offer advising assistance for the Gender Studies minor.
