President's Welcome

General Information

a message from the president

Welcome to Eastern Oregon University. For 75 years, EOU has brought worked to bring educational opportunities to the people of eastern Oregon, the Pacific Northwest, and beyond. That experience has provided the strength for our past success and is what continues to give this university such great potential.

EOU is ranked as the second best college in the nation for quality and value by Consumers Digest magazine – clear evidence of our commitment to quality education. We focus on educating the whole student and are dedicated to academic excellence by offering exceptional faculty, small classes, individualized attention, an attractive main campus, innovative distance learning programs and exceptional access to education. Students engage in undergraduate research and learn through hands-on experiences, including internships and cooperative opportunities.

Our intent is to prepare each student for today's global marketplace with the tools and knowledge to succeed.

I hope that you find this catalog useful. If you have any suggestions or comments about the publication, or if we can be of further assistance, please let us know.
