If in doubt, disclose and explain, rather than conceal. If you answer "No" to questions 8 through 11, based upon an "expungement" order "setting aside" or "sealing" of a record of a conviction or conditional discharge, you must personally verify with the court directly involved that the expungement, setting aside, or sealing has actually taken place. An erroneous belief that a conviction has been expunged, set aside, or sealed, when in fact it has not, will be deemed a false statement. 2. Check here if for any "Yes" answer an explanation was provided with a prior application, in which case, no further explanation is required at this time.

Signature and Date: I hereby certify that the information submitted on or relating to this form is true and correct and grant the Commission permission to check civil or criminal records to verify any statement made on this application.
