

Skill Requirements for General Maintenance Mechanic

Listed below are the general skills for a General Maintenance Mechanic. Preference will be given to candidates who have these skills and knowledge. If you possess these skills and knowledge then please describe in detail your level of proficiency, the length and depth of your experience, and how you have used or obtained these skills.

- Basic knowledge of heating, ventilating and air conditioning systems, generators, various fan units, compressors and pumps.

- Basic knowledge of the hazards and safety precautions required of working with HVAC units, generators, various fan units, compressors and pumps.

- Experience entering data into computer programs.

- Experience in performing minor adjustments and/or repairs to tools and equipment of the trade.

- Experience in maintaining other assorted equipment, including motor vehicles and grounds vehicles.

Please answer 'yes' or 'no' to each of the following:

_____ Do you have the ability to read, understand and follow written communications and can you follow oral direction?

_____ Can you frequently lift up to 75 pounds and shovel up to 25 pounds and can you bend, kneel, and squat for extended periods of time?

_____ Can you work on ladders, man-lifts, and elevated platforms in excess of 20 feet in height?

Special Qualification

Must have, or be able to obtain within six months of hire, a valid State of Oregon drivers license.

NOTICE—YOU MUST SIGN AND DATE BELOW

Any oral or written statement that is false, fraudulent or misleading contained in this application and attached materials or made in the course of any related employment process, whether made by me or by others at my request, will result in the rejection of my application, denial of employment, or dismissal from state service if discovered after employment, and in some cases, prosecution.

I certify that I have read and understand the above notice. I further certify that I personally completed this application and attached materials or requested its completion and that all statements contained herein are true and complete to the best of my knowledge.

Name

Date