TRAVEL FELLOWSHIP GUIDELINES INTERNATIONAL STOCKMEN'S EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

In an effort to enhance the educational experiences of college students and strengthen the leaders of tomorrow's livestock and meat industry, the International Stockmen's Educational Foundation awards travel fellowships each year for the International Livestock Congress to senior level undergraduates and graduate students attending accredited colleges or universities.

The International Livestock Congress USA, managed through a partnership of the ISEF and the National Western Stock Show, is a unique global event that brings leaders from the livestock and meat industry together to discuss issues of international importance that affect the future of animal agriculture. Students will participate in the event January 10-13, 2010 in Denver, Colorado. Events will include a student career workshop, the International Livestock Congress USA, and tours of area plants, feedlots and ranches.

- Fellowships include airfare, ground transportation, hotel and scheduled meals. Scholastic achievement, leadership experiences and letters of recommendation are all part of the stringent qualifying requirements for this fellowship.
- Travel fellowship recipients must participate in all activities of the International Livestock Congress and develop a professional paper that summarizes the outcomes of the event.
- These papers must be submitted in English to the student's department head and a copy forwarded to the ISEF office within 90 days following the Congress. Papers will be evaluated by a selection committee for possible publication in the event proceedings. The selection committee will also choose the most outstanding paper submitted.
- Recipients will also be required to make a presentation to a breed association or a similar group in their area about their experiences at the International Livestock Congress.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

The application process will be almost entirely electronic. Please read the Application Instructions carefully! All applications and supporting materials (letters of reference, photo, and transcripts) will be directed to Wendy Woerner, ISEF Student Program Coordinator.
