MAJOR FUND TYPES

Education and General (E&G)

The Education and General revenue budget consist of Public University Fund state allocation, tuition and student course fees, internal sales and miscellaneous revenue. The expense/transfer budget supports activities and services that are intrinsic to the university, including instruction, research, student services, libraries, administration, and maintenance of the campus facilities.

Revenue drivers:

Tuition and student fees
Institutional Fee Remissions
State funding
Indirect cost recovery (grants)
Investment earnings

Expenditure Drivers:

Employee compensation
Direct Expenses
Transfers In/Out

MAJOR FUND TYPES

Auxiliary Enterprises

Auxiliary Services include services that are essential to the support of the university's academic programs. Auxiliary units are expected to generate sufficient revenue to cover all costs of operating and capital need, and are not supported by state allocation/funding. Departments such as Housing and Dining, Student Health Center, Parking Services, Athletics, General Rentals, the Integrated Services Building (ISB) and the Incidental Student Services Fee are considered Auxiliaries at EOU. Ideally, all auxiliary enterprise units are required to pay an overhead fee to the campus for the support central services offered. Auxiliaries make the principle payments from their net revenue.
