Your parent(s) reported total income of less than half of the published 2018 poverty guideline for your family size. We need to know that we completely understand your situation and have an accurate picture of how your family met its living expenses.

Please provide the information below:

FAFSA Questions 74 through 78
At any time during 2018 or 2019, did you, your parents, or anyone in your parents' household (from FAFSA question 72) receive benefits from any of the federal programs listed? Mark all that apply. Answering these questions will NOT reduce eligibility for student aid or these programs. Please provide monthly amounts, where appropriate.	No	Yes
74. Medicaid or Supplemental Security Income (SSI)		$
75. Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)		$
76. Free or Reduced Price School Lunch
77. Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) TANF has different names in many states. Call 1-800-433-3243 to find out the name of your state's program.		$
78. Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants, and Children (WIC)

If the above information does not sufficiently explain how you met your living expenses in 2018, please provide a detailed statement below that will resolve what appears to be conflicting or incomplete information.

- o Please include any excluded items (with amounts) from the above table (Question 92). While those amounts will not be included nor count against your FAFSA EFC, they will help explain how your family survived and was supported on so little reported income.
- o We recognize that your household size may not have been the same in 2018 as it is now. If your income would have reflected an ability to support your 2018 household size, you could include that in your explanation.
- o You can also resolve our question to you, if you can show a budget where your income exceeds your expenses.
- o With an innumerable number of options, we cannot list every possibility. Please use your discretion to paint a complete picture for us.
