

TEACH GRANTS

As a TEACH Grant recipient, your commitment to teaching is appreciated.

Make Managing That Commitment Easier

Create an online account at MyFedLoan.org and review your grant details through Account Access, our online account management tool. We've made it easy for you to keep tabs on your grant details and track your progress toward completing your service obligation.

While you're in school, we will keep track of the potential interest that you'll have to repay if your grants are ever converted to loans. We will send you quarterly emails and an annual summary of this interest. (Don't worry! No payment is due and you may never have to repay this interest. Just make sure that you perform qualifying service and submit all required certifications after you graduate or leave school.)

Important to Remember: To satisfy your TEACH Grant service obligation, you need to:

- Teach full-time as a highly qualified teacher in a high-need field at an eligible low-income elementary school, secondary school, or educational service agency for at least 4 academic years.
- Complete the required 4 years of teaching within 8 years after you cease to be enrolled at the school where you received your TEACH Grants.

 If you don't meet these requirements, your TEACH Grants may be converted to Direct Unsubsidized Loans that you'll have to repay in full, with interest charged from the date of each TEACH Grant disbursement. For more information about your teaching obligation, review your Agreement to Serve or Repay.*

*Visit
MyFedLoan.org/TEACH to learn more.*

U.S. Department of Education
Information about your federal student loan

FedLoan Servicing was established by the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA) to support the U.S. Department of Education's ability to service student loans owned by the federal government. PHEAA conducts its student loan servicing activities nationally as FedLoan Servicing and American Education Services (AES). Copyright © PHEAA, 2021. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED.

FLS-TCHF1 070921