UHY determination may be made based on a documented interview if other documentation isn't available:

Fixed (stationary, permanent, not subject to change)

- Where are you living? Is it permanent or temporary?

Regular (used on a predictable, routine or consistent basis)

- Why are you staying in your current place? How long have you been staying there?
- Do you stay in the same place every night, or move around a lot?
- Are you looking for another place to live? Do you plan to move out soon?
- Do you share the home equally, or are you like a guest in the home? Do you have a key to the place?
- Could they ask you to leave if they wanted to?
- Where would you go if you couldn't stay where you are (or in the dorm)?

Adequate (sufficient for meeting both physical and psychological needs typically met in a home)

- How many people live in the home? How many bedrooms and bathrooms does it have?
- Are you sleeping in a bedroom, or a public area like a dining room?
- Does the home have utilities and water? Is it safe?

At-Risk (housing may cease to be fixed, regular, adequate – ex: being evicted)

- Is your current housing situation likely to end? Are you able to sustain it or are you at risk of being evicted?

Approved - Student is UHY and should have independent status

Denied - Student is not UHY and should have dependent status.

If the student is self-supporting, the student's housing is likely to cease to be fixed, regular and adequate, and the student is not under the care of a parent or guardian, he or she meets the definition and qualifies as independent.
