

Call for Papers

Phi Alpha Theta Pacific Northwest Conference

April 12-13, 2019

Idaho State University Pocatello, Idaho

- Abstracts due Friday February 22, 2019
- Final papers due Friday March 22, 2019

Student Presenters:

- Abstract should be a maximum of 200 words in length. Briefly explain the central question(s) and time period(s) that are examined in the paper.
 - Include a title for the paper.
 - Include your name, institution, and status (undergraduate or graduate).
 - Presenters are not required to be members of their local PAT chapter, but only members are eligible for awards.
- Final paper should be a maximum of ten (10) pages. This page limit does NOT include required title page, endnotes, and bibliography.
 - Presentation must not exceed twenty (20) minutes.
 - Title page should include student name, paper title, institution, chapter name (if PAT member), and student status (undergraduate or graduate).
 - Paper should be double-spaced in 12-point font with 1" margins.
 - Save paper as Word or pdf file with file name in this format:
 - Undergraduates: lastname_school_UG
 - Graduate students: lastname_school_Grad
 - Submit files to your faculty advisor, who will send them to the conference.

Faculty Advisors:

Due February 22, 2019:

- Send all abstracts together in one email to patnorthwest2019@gmail.com.
- Send names and fields of expertise of each faculty member who will attend from your school.

Due March 22, 2019:

- Send all student papers as attached files to patnorthwest2019@gmail.com.

Conference registration: $75 per person for students and faculty advisors.

Conference hotel: Pocatello Red Lion Hotel. Conference room rate is $69/night.

For Questions: Contact Professor Kevin Marsh at patnorthwest2019@gmail.com.

Idaho State
UNIVERSITY