

Resolution in Support of the EOU Undergraduate Spring Symposium

Whereas, Eastern Oregon University at its core is a liberal arts institution focused on providing undergraduates the opportunity to be involved in intellectual and creative endeavors; and

Whereas, Nearly all students are required to perform and submit capstone projects that exemplify the synthesis of ideas inherent in a liberal arts education; and

Whereas, The Spring Undergraduate Symposium exists as a forum for presentation of these endeavors to both the University community and the La Grande community as a whole; Therefore

Resolved, That the Faculty Senate supports the EOU Undergraduate Spring Symposium as an event of presentation and learning and civic engagement.

Resolved, That Faculty Senate strongly encourages all faculty to incorporate the Spring Symposium into their courses in such a way as it facilitates attendance and participation in this event.
