EVENTS

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 17
4 pm, Hoke Community Room | IEW Kick Off Fashion Show, Sponsored by ISA
A trip around the world without the jet lag! Students will display cultural attire in a fashion show with a couple of special performances.

“Paint Your World” Contest
Grab a brush and paint the world as you see it. The creations will be painted on the windows in Hoke. Vote for your favorite before Friday at 4 pm in the MC!

6 pm, Hoke 309 | Dance Fitness with Jessica Glover
Enjoy Hip Hop with some international dance style moves!

7 pm, Ackerman 210 | Latin American Film

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 18
3 pm, Hoke Main Lounge | Diverse Experiences from the International Perspective, facilitated by Professor Tawnya Lubbes
A panel of international students will answer questions based on their cultural backgrounds and English as a second language experiences.

4 pm, Hoke Main Lounge | Café International
Come and explore the differences of the many Native American tribes and eliminate stereotypes of American Indian cultures in this open discussion.

5 pm, Loso Hall 123 | Afro-Caribbean Dance with the African Drumming Ensemble
Students from Africa and the Caribbean Islands will teach a dance, which will be performed with the African Drumming Ensemble.

7:30 pm, Hoke 309 | Workshop in Caribbean Dance

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 19
11-2pm, Hoke Main Lounge | Study Abroad Fair
Interested in studying abroad? Stop by, pick up materials and learn about study abroad and the many opportunities available to EOU students.

4-6 pm, Hoke Community Room | Global Village
Come view the country displays and sample tasty treats! Crafts will be available for everyone to make and take home!

6pm, Quinn Coliseum | FIFA World Cup EOU
Join the us for a 3 on 3 soccer tournament as we celebrate the World Cup and EOU Women’s and Men’s Soccer. If you would like to play, contact: Carolyn Ohlms, Assistant Women’s Soccer Coach, danekc@eou.edu

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 20
10 am, Meet in front of Inlow Hall | EOU Historical Tour led by Professor Linda Reed-Jerofke
Come enjoy the mysteries of EOU and Eastern Oregon in a walking tour that explores Native American use of the area, pioneer travelers along the Oregon Trail, higher education, and the culture of our region.

5 pm, Loso Hall 123 | Afro-Caribbean Dance with the African Drumming Ensemble
Students from Africa and the Caribbean Islands will teach a dance, which will be performed with the African Drumming Ensemble.

6 pm, Hoke Main Lounge | Ping Pong Tournament, Sponsored by EOU’s Chinese Club
End the week with a fun tournament!

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21
11 am - 1 pm, Hoke Main Lounge | A Taste of the World
EOU multicultural clubs will share their culture with the community by selling unique cuisines. Sushi, Fry Bread Tacos, Southern Fried Chicken and other items will be available for purchase.